

Auerbach Grayson Continues to Expand into Capital Markets

Looks to grow along with Global Alliance Partners (GAP)

NEW YORK, USA, January 20, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Auerbach Grayson, a New York based global stockbroker and investment bank, has announced its continued expansion into capital raising, cross-border M&A, and advisory work.

Auerbach Grayson, co-founded in 1993 by Mr. David S. Grayson, its Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, is a global financial firm doing business in over 120 countries.

Mr. Grayson said, "the key to our success has been building a unique and exclusive network of banks and brokers; each a member of its local stock exchange in providing its institutional clients local knowledge and insight unavailable elsewhere".

"Being a part of the Global Alliance Partners is a natural extension of what we do. GAP gives us access to like-minded boutique investment banks and provides a forum for sharing ideas as well as sourcing and placing deals. Some of the GAP members even join our weekly Capital Markets meeting," Mr. Grayson added.

Mr. Bernard Pouliot, Chairman of Global Alliance Partners meanwhile cited, "having Auerbach Grayson in our group also gives our members access to the U.S. market as well as allowing us to access countries where we do not have a GAP member."

Mr. Grayson also said that Global Alliance Partners is "a very collegial network. Prior to the pandemic, we had annual meetings which gave us all the chance to renew our relationships in person. We look forward to the day that will begin again".

Auerbach Grayson co-hosted the bi-annual Global Alliance Partners (GAP) Investment Conference held in New York prior to the Covid 19 pandemic saga.
