What Makes Protech Carpet Care Different From the Rest?

Protech Carpet Care has raised the bar for many carpet cleaning companies by hiring professionals certified by the Institute of Inspection Cleaning & Restoration (IICRC). The owner is also a certified Senior Carpet Inspector and Master Textile Cleaner. These certifications serve as assured proof of the organization's reliable performance. Protech Carpet Care's professionalism is reflected through its 21 years of experience, understanding towards the most efficient cleaning systems, and assurity of products for the best possible clean.

The company has built an excellent reputation through consistent customer services while upholding high standards and staying up-to-date on the best industry practices.

"Our team of experts is proud to be serving the community for the past two decades. At ProTech, we believe it is a real honor to have an opportunity to serve our friends and neighbors. We know that this community is responsible for our success, and we work every day to live up to the expectations of our clients." - Kevin, Owner of ProTech Carpet Care

ProTech Carpet Care has numerous positive reviews from its loyal customers, providing testaments to their outstanding and consistent performance.

"Kevin has been helping us with our carpets and oriental rugs for 15 years. He is professional, pleasant, and never takes very long to set up an appointment. He has also come in a hurry when there was a more urgent situation. I trust him implicitly." - Jodie McClement

"Kevin has been taking care of our rugs and carpeted areas for more than 12 years. We've always had dogs, and he does an exceptional job of keeping our home fresh and clean. He cares about special needs, such as wool rugs and chemical sensitivities, and he is always full of smiles and professionalism. I wouldn't recommend anyone else because he knows his business." - Rhonda Welch
