The Economic Epicure

offers restaurants a way to minimize high third-party fees and commissions.

NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, January 21, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Economic Epicure (<https://www.theeconomicpicure.com> ), a new restaurant information resource, recently unveiled its datacrunching calculator feature to empower large and small restaurants nationwide with a means by which to quickly determine P&L, delivery costs and the steps required to achieve menu optimization. This is all-important because The Economic Epicure wants to enable local restaurants to:

- Find ways to eliminate high third- party commission fees
- Take control of expenses
- Build a better guest relationship
- Offer a delivery option for people who call in and who order online.

In addition to its data-crunching feature, The Economic Epicure unveiled its recommendations on third-party alternatives and how to implement them, a half-dozen, low fee or commission-free web-based options including Toast and ChowNow. Each choice offers its benefits. For instance, ChowNow charges a flat rate rather than a percentage-based fee on each restaurant order.

"At The Economic Epicure, I'm completely focused on not only helping restaurants navigate the COVID-19 health crisis but also taking control of the diner experience so these establishments can excel when we recover," said Jai Jhamb, creator of The Economic Epicure.
