COVID-19 Scenario Analysis:

The outbreak of COVID-19 globally and the forced lockout, there is an ongoing recession in the healthcare market. The major stakeholders were thinking to adapt their plan to the rapidly changing situation. COVID-19 is expected to have significant long-term impacts, which is negative on the healthcare industry. The countries and major players would have to assume critical healthcare changes until the crisis takes a back seat. The technological progress, cost containment and augmented access will in the near future be an integral part of healthcare reforms. However, since many healthcare providers are working on video conferencing and telephone calls, this segment's growth will increase several folds over the next two years.
