

Wellness Tourism Association Forms Partnership with World Wellness Weekend to Welcome Seven WTA Ambassadors

7 wellness tourism experts are appointed: Eduardo Finci, Dianna Ruas, Jeanette Tambakau, Simone Ciolli, Cinzia Galletto, Giovanna Lorrai, Stavros Mavridis,

DENVER, COLORADO, USA, January 21, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Wellness Tourism Association (WTA), launched as a not-for profit in January 2018 and now moving into its fifth year of operation, is celebrating the anniversary with the formation of an active partnership with the five-year-old World Wellness Weekend (WWW), celebrated in 130+ countries and founded by Jean-Guy de Gabriac.

The new partnership will see select WWW Ambassadors, from various parts of the world, become WTA Ambassadors. "We are extremely delighted to partner with WWW, a globally-respected entity with goals aligned with our own," says Anne Dimon, WTA Co-founder & President/CEO. "The WWW Ambassadors have demonstrated such passion and enthusiasm for the WWW cause that we know they will help us in supporting the Wellness Tourism Association's mission of bringing standards, definitions and clarity to this growing segment of the tourism industry."

WWW Founder, Jean-Guy de Gabriac, says, "I am thrilled to enter a strategic partnership with WTA to promote Vitamin W (Wellness) and Vitamin T (Tourism). After two extremely challenging years, accessible and sustainable Wellness Travel is now on everybody's mind, whether locally with revitalizing staycations, or internationally with immersive retreats. 2022 should be the year for professionals in Hospitality, Spa, Wellness and Tourism to actively work together and create elevated experiences and packages to put smiles back on the faces of millions of wellness enthusiasts."

Here is the list of first-time WTA Ambassadors:

* EDUARDO FINCI – Argentina As president of the Buenos Aires-based Asociacion Americana de

Spa for the last 20 years, Eduardo Finci is also the founder and director of the Wello Academy and the American School of Spa. In 2020, he was named Emeritus Ambassador of the World Wellness Weekend for Latin America.
