Recent reports say the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services has created a new rule that allows people with income between 100-150% of the poverty level to enroll throughout the year, as long as the American Rescue Plan’s subsidy enhancements remain in effect. Up to this point, CMS data shows that signups haven’t been an issue across the country. In fact, enrollment for the Affordable Care Act has sharply increased for 2022 with more than 923,000 new signups. Of those numbers, 80% are returning members while 20% are new members, further proving that Americans are excited about the current administration’s promise for lower premiums under the American Rescue Plan. This includes individuals and families who want Frisco health insurance.

Rick Thornton, a Frisco health insurance agent, says the healthcare.gov site is simple to use, and many media outlets are reporting that interested Americans can gain coverage in as little as 5-10 minutes on the highly popular website. He added that this is a golden opportunity for so many Americans. According to a statement on the White House website, a family of four with an annual household income of $90,000 may see their monthly premium drop by $200 each month.
