The Panel will be presented by a multicultural group of women panelists who represent the voice of many successful entrepreneurs and industry leaders.

DUBAI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES, January 24, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- During the first event of 2022 of The Abrahamic Business Circle, "Let Money Talk," women will play an important role. The Panel, "Women in Business: The rise of women in leadership," will be presented by a multicultural group of women panelists who represent the voice of many successful entrepreneurs and industry leaders.

The essential objective of this Panel in The Abrahamic Business Circle Summit is to share experiences among highly successful women and discuss solutions to insert women in the process of economic and social recovery.

Attendees will learn with exceptional women like H.E. Hjayceelyn M. Quintana', Ambassador of the Philippines to the UAE, among many others, who will speak about the importance of female leadership for change and the presence of women in decision-making bodies; social innovation, and collaborative economy as new ways to create jobs.

Women today are farmers, factory workers, CEOs, scientists, engineers, or doctors, and they do many other jobs that were unthinkable in the past. Women's activity has a tremendous positive impact on the economy, business, agriculture, and industry, as domestic workers, market vendors, migrant workers, and unpaid caregivers. For this reason, an action plan must be built and carried out to encourage more women to be part of a more equitable future with economic improvements for all.
