

Archlet announces new Partnership with TealBook to Fuel Holistic Sourcing Decisions

ZÜRICH, SWITZERLAND, January 25, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- TealBook, the leading supplier data foundation that autonomously enhances supplier data and powers e-procurement technology, and Archlet, the user-first sourcing software company that helps companies make better sourcing decisions faster, today announced a new partnership to make third-party supplier information directly available in the creation of sourcing scenarios within Archlet.

Archlet partners with TealBook to simplify holistic sourcing decisions

The partnership will allow TealBook customers to take advantage of Archlet’s third-party supplier information, thus enabling them to make solid sourcing decisions faster. It also gives Archlet customers the opportunity to include TealBook’s comprehensive supplier intelligence capabilities as an extension to the Archlet Sourcing Optimization process.

By combining TealBook’s data foundation with Archlet’s scenario optimization capabilities, we empower our customers to make their sustainability, diversity, and risk strategies actionable.”
