ABOUT

An eclectic R&B and Rap talent, ShaMegga’s musical journey began at the tender age of 5, after the young artist performed in the church chorus, and sang as a lead in Easter Pageants. By the age of 11, ShaMegga played the trombone and saxophone familiarizing him with both clef’s of the music scale. The artist’s life took a difficult turn when he faced incarceration, due to past mistakes, however, he effectively used this time to write diverse forms of music.

After several years of writing, ShaMegga hit the stage again, opening up for Bobby Valentino, and performing with a R&B group based out of Utica, New York, called Justus. With Justus, the artist released an album online in 2011, titled, “Grown Folk Thang”. ShaMegga showcased his talents on Keyboards and lead vocals, with Justus, and is currently looking forward to presenting his own independent talents with the world.
