

PRIVATE COMMUNITIES REGISTRY ANNOUNCES ITS 2022 'TOP COMMUNITY AWARDS'

More than 50 master-planned lifestyle communities throughout the country were recognized in the organization's inaugural best-of list.

VERO BEACH, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, January 27, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Private Communities Registry (PCR), the trusted online resource for real estate shoppers interested in amenity-rich, master-planned lifestyle communities, has released its "Top Communities of the Year" awards.

The diverse list includes more than 50 communities across eleven categories broken down by state and region. In each region, PrivateCommunities.com features dozens of appealing and desirable community showcase pages. The winners were selected based on a combination of consumer activity, user engagement, and information requests through each community's showcase during the 2021 calendar year.

"What a banner year it was as many of our clients across the country experienced record-breaking sales," says Ben Keal, PCR's Director of Sales and Operations. "With more than 1 million visitors and tens of thousands of leads generated, all of the nearly 300 communities featured on PCR garnered interest among prospective lifestyle buyers—and this list is meant to acknowledge the most popular communities, according to our users."

Annual research of website visitors conducted by PCR revealed that community homebuyers are most motivated by "active lifestyle amenities" such as swimming pools, walking/biking trails, and fitness centers. Furthermore, many prefer to be near the beach, lake, or golf course. Not
