Microbe Formulas, a Meridian-based health company, has been an active member of the chamber for almost two years. The Meridian Chamber of Commerce is a membership organization through the city government that provides ways for local companies to become involved in the community through business advocacy, leadership opportunities, networking, and promotion of individual businesses. The Women in Leadership Organization is a small committee made up of women leaders in the Treasure Valley looking to broaden their networking and leadership skills.

Jessica Tidwell, a Communications team member for Microbe and committee member, shares, "The Women in Leadership Committee creates a perfect opportunity for us to get to know other leaders in the area while learning valuable skills through their events. I am grateful to work for a company and a VP, like Shawnda, who encourages professional development through opportunities like this. I can't wait to watch Shawnda flourish in this role while supporting her the whole way."

February 9th, 2022 will kick off the first event put on by the newest committee leaders. The Women in Leadership committee will be hosting an event where women can learn about gun safety, situational awareness, tourniquet application and training, and legal resources. This event will be hosted at Independence Indoor shooting in Meridian, Idaho at 4:00 pm MST. Community members can learn more and register here.

Huffman shares, “From day one I have seen the immense value of involvement with the Chamber, as well as with the Women in Leadership committee. This committee empowers women to make meaningful connections in the community, and I am so excited to be a part of each member's experience.”

She adds, “This first event is such a great opportunity for women in our community. Not only does it offer valuable resources on safety, but it also is a place where leaders are able to network and gain knowledge from a wide range of business women.”
