

FRB Federal Credit Union Offers CURevl's New College Planning Tool to Its Members

GALVESTON, TEXAS, USA, February 1, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CU REVL LLC (CURevl) announced the launch of its new college planning website, colleging. Federal Reserve Board Federal Credit Union is the first client to offer this exciting new resource to its members.

CURevl understands financial literacy is important to credit unions and their members. Helping families navigate the journey to college is an area we can help. Planning for college is a journey, not an event. There are a lot of players and a lot of moving pieces making the process sometimes confusing. Colleging hopes by breaking it down into more manageable phases, people will be less intimidated.

"I am proud to be a part of an organization doing their part to promote financial literacy," said Tim Kulesha, COO at CURevl. "College planning is one path in the greater life journey but one that can assist in starting 'adulthood' on more solid footing."

"Finally, a comprehensive, fun, and easy-to-follow website about the entire college journey for students and parents! All the information in one place, and readily accessible. Colleging.com is a disrupter in the best sense. Bravo!" says Theresa Trimble, CEO of FRBFCU.
