A host of our USA and Canadian resellers have put forth an enquiry about offering support for Versapay to receive payments and we are glad to have this option available to them”

Shiv Agarwal, Director of Sales and Marketing at VARStreet

provider of enterprise software solutions for IT and office supplies VARs in the United States and Canada. VARStreet’s platform offers a product catalog with rich content from 45+ IT and office supplies distributors like ACM Technologies, National Copy Cartridge, Securematics, International Toner Corp, and more. Value-added resellers use the platform to create advanced sales quotes, launch their B2B eCommerce store along with free CRM and procurement solutions.

Versapay is a leading payment platform that permits merchants to authorize, settle and manage credit card transactions via the digital shelf or websites. Every VARStreet reseller will need to set up a merchant account with Versapay to accept payments. This integration is implemented keeping in mind both the storefront and the back office.

In addition to Versapay, VARStreet has had successful integrations with other leading payment gateways, with the likes of Stripe, Authorize.net, Paypal, Intuit Payment Solution, Moneriv, and Vantiv. Apart from payment gateways, VARStreet has successful and credible integrations with software applications like .NetSuite ERP, Salesforce CRM, QuickBooks accounting solution, and many more to enable its clients to manage their business better.

Shiv Agarwal, Director of Sales and Marketing at VARStreet, said, "A host of our USA and Canadian resellers have put forth an enquiry about offering support for Versapay to receive payments and we are glad to have this option available to them". He further added "Integration with Versapay is yet another way to support resellers collaborating with clients in real-time and providing an amazing service experience”.
