and CEO*

“We are incredibly pleased to welcome Barbara Wilson to the Ampcus family”, said Ann Ramakumaran. “She is recognized nationally as a Water IT leader, and she has experience with information technologies services associated with drinking water and clean water treatments, from planning to designing/ configuring to implementing and maintaining the IT services needed to make a water utility run.”

Barbara Wilson previously served as the Senior Information Technology (IT) Manager for Metro Water Recovery in Denver, CO. She was responsible for information technology at the utility, where she led major initiatives in IT planning, wireless connectivity, cybersecurity, and IT Service Management. Before Metro, Barbara served as the Senior IT Manager at the City of Fort Worth Water Department (2006-2013), focused on asset management, utility billing and customer experience IT service initiatives. Barbara received her Master's in Public Administration from the University of North Texas in Denton, Texas and her undergraduate degree from Saint Joseph's University in Philadelphia, PA.
