brought to a close

American Consumer Claims (ACC) ECC have now cast their corporate gaze across the Atlantic, and joined forces with America's foremost timeshare lawyers. ECC's success, prestige, history and expertise are being drawn on to take on the powerful US timeshare industry on behalf of the 'little guy' consumers who have lost significant amounts of money due to unfair, high pressure sales practices.

A new entity called American Consumer Claims (ACC) is being created to handle the the anticipated high volume of work in the burgeoning US timeshare industry "It's time for us to bring our hard won experience to bear on bad actors in the USA," says Andrew Cooper, CEO of ECC "In Europe we have around a million timeshare owners, the US figure is ten times that. There are vast amounts of people whose lives have been ruined by high pressure sales and dishonest practices, not just by timeshare companies, but also so called 'exit firms'. "American Consumer Claims will be here to help you, if you have been wronged by US timeshare operators."

US Exit firms

US exit firms like Timeshare Termination Team have been shut down over non-compliant operating, and forced into bankruptcy leaving thousands of timeshare owners out of pocket, and still tied to expensive memberships ACC will be offering three types of services to the US timeshare market:

"Basically, if someone has been taken advantage of by a timeshare company, or further targeted by an exit firm for even more money, we are here to help," says Cooper. "In Europe we currently work together with a specialist firm of timeshare lawyers called M1 Legal. M1 Legal has an unimpeachable success rate in challenging and overturning the illicit behaviour of European timeshare giants" This move into the US market for us involves our most exciting collaboration yet, this time with the most respected and accomplished timeshare lawyers in the continental United States
