

AxleHire Partners with Deliverr to Provide an 'Amazon-Like' Next-Day Delivery Experience to eCommerce Retailers

AxleHire today announced that it's now providing next-day, last-mile delivery service for Deliverr, an eCommerce fulfillment and technology company.

EMERYVILLE, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, February 2, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Expedited,

We were able to assure our customers that orders placed up until December 23 would be delivered by Christmas. We wouldn't have been able to make these promises to our customers without AxleHire.”

Johnny Craddock, Director of Transportation at Deliverr

urban last-mile delivery provider, AxleHire today announced that it's now providing next-day, last-mile delivery service for Deliverr, an eCommerce fulfillment and technology company that provides fast and affordable fulfillment services to e-commerce merchants on marketplace platforms like Shopify, Walmart, Amazon, eBay, Target and more.

Using continuous sort technology, AxleHire processes Deliverr packages injected into its sortation center for next day delivery. The companies' combined technologies allow merchants to compete with Amazon by meeting consumers' growing demands for fast delivery.

“During the busiest time of the year, we were able to assure our customers that orders placed up until December 23 would be delivered by Christmas,” said Johnny Craddock, Director of Transportation at Deliverr. “We wouldn't have been able to make these promises to our customers without the help of AxleHire. We're eager to expand with AxleHire as they grow into new locations so we can provide our customers with the best delivery experience possible.”

AxleHire first partnered with Deliverr back in 2020 delivering in New York and Los Angeles and have since expanded to Philadelphia, New Jersey, San Francisco, Dallas and Houston, in addition to the original locations.

“We're delighted to be able to offer Deliverr's customers a superior next-day delivery experience, while giving them the opportunity to continue owning their brand,” said Adam Bryant, CEO, AxleHire. “We believe that any merchant should be able to provide their customers an 'Amazon-like' delivery service, and that this partnership provides a key step in doing that.”
