TUCSON, ARIZONA, UNITED STATES, February 1, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Mokbel Almaylaa published his book about political ideologies, alternative history, and fiction titled, Graveyards of the Greats. The book unveils about a train of time that has already traveled for a century since it first picked up his Imperial Majesty, Sultan Abdul Hamid II, Emperor of the Ottomans, Caliph of the Faithful. And lastly, picked Yitzhak Rabin the Fifth Prime Minister of Israel.

A leader is one who knows the way, goes the way, and shows the way.”

John C. Maxwell.

A train that is a hundred-years-old carried the greats of the Twentieth Century: Hitler, Stalin, Churchill, Charles de Gaulle, Kennedy, Gandhi, and Jamal Abdul Nasser of Egypt and other passengers. Their attaché cases were full of different philosophies that sometimes led to either bloody wars or cold wars. The train has made its last stop at the Graveyard of the Greats, and the journey is over. But it's commemorations handed down by the travelers to be held between the two covers of this book.

“It takes you there, every chapter, every character pulls you down to a small, cold, underground chamber, heated by an exciting and breathtaking dialogue. There were loads of information, fun, romance, and history lessons for the future. You will find your star on the novel’s page...I did... and I am looking forward to seeing the author’s next book.” — Charles Al Rachid, <http://grayyardofthegreatsarabiceditio.blogspot.com/>.

Born in Beirut in 1954 and raised in Damascus, Syria, Mokbel Almaylaa achieved a master's degree in philosophy in 1980 from the University of Damascus while he had worked for several local magazines and newspapers. Over the years, he lived and worked in Syria, Lebanon, Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates, Egypt, Turkey, India, the Philippines, Germany, Switzerland, and France. Currently, he lives and works in the United States of America.
