strategy and mindset training, that’s when we see big results. That’s what gets us over the finish line. That’s why I started HANGOUT Masterminds. To help more entrepreneurs achieve their goals.”

HANGOUT Masterminds include 2-hour monthly group meetings where teams of six set outrageous goals for themselves, their lives, and their businesses, then set a plan to achieve them. Each participant gets, and serves as, an accountability coach, and host Wils guides members to reach each milestone. Each Mastermind group will have its own private group chat on WhatsApp where members can put in wins, challenges, and problems and get feedback from the others. In this first pilot, Wils will serve as a second accountability partner to ensure the groups’ complete success.

HANGOUT stands for:
Hotseat
Accountability partner

“The first month of 2022 is gone. Are you ahead of your goals or already behind?” asks Wils. “If you want this year to be the year you achieve your goals, join the HANGOUT Mastermind pilot. In addition to the strategies, case studies, and success tools, you gain access to a host and an accountability partner committed to your success and celebrating your milestones along the way.”

The first HANGOUT Mastermind pilot launches Thursday, February 3 at 8 pm CET. This program will take place in Wils’ native language Dutch. Other masterminds in English are forming and will begin soon. The first international group will be the pilot setting the standard for the rest. This group will get special treatment because Wils wants the participants to become raving ambassadors of the program to create momentum. Since there is only room for six and Wils is offering a special discount for these pilot participants, he recommends not waiting to sign up, this will fill up quickly.
