

A Unique Wedding Song Becomes a Global Valentine's Hit

Yes I Do (My Wedding Song) by Monika

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, USA, February 2, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Known within the music and film industry as one of the greatest music composers of her generation, Monika released her own wedding song - Yes I Do \(My Wedding Song\) - and instantly hit the top playlists on music platforms during this year's Valentine's frenzy.

This overwhelming response is nothing new to Monika who is accustomed to both media and public's attention throughout the years dating back to 2006 where she became a MySpace sensation overnight. Just 3 weeks ago she was in the spotlight for composing 10 songs for the Original Soundtrack of Maggie Gyllenhaal's "The Lost Daughter" starring Olivia Colman, Dakota Johnson, Jessie Buckley and Ed Harris among others.

“When I compose music for a movie I have to follow the director’s guidelines. There’s always a little bit of my expression in everything I compose but with Yes I Do, it’s 100% me. No scene guidelines, no time codes, just me on my guitar dreaming of my wedding. That’s my process for capturing emotions into music” said Monika who’s single song will also be included in her new album titled “I’m Proud” set to be released in November 2022.

People walk up to me and say we got married to your song!”

Working with the same renowned recording team as Amy Winehouse, Adele and Lady Gaga, her upcoming album work is widely anticipated and if Yes I Do (My Wedding Song) is any indication, Monika is expected to deliver something fresh, outside the box and new sensations through her cinematic pop approach.

"I have sang this song live for some years now and I get such an overwhelming response from the crowd. I had many people walk up to me and say we got married to your song! I thought it was time to properly record and release the song as a thank you to all my fans" said Monika while adding that the Yes I Do (My Wedding Song) official music video that was also released on her YouTube channel on February 1st 2022 is exclusively made of archival footage of those live performances.
