

Relationship & Personal Growth Blog 'The Truly Charming' Sees Huge Upsurge in Popularity

With over 50,000 visitors a month, The Truly Charming is becoming the go-to resource for self-improvement.

ROME, ITALY, February 2, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Established in December, 2020, The Truly Charming is a website that addresses issues regarding relationships, social skills, and personal growth. Founded by writer and coach Sira Mas, whose work has been published in a number of well-known media outlets, the site is experiencing phenomenal growth and popularity, attracting over 50,000 visitors every month.

Sira is on a mission to help people build the best, most attractive version of themselves through her website, and offers a wide variety of helpful content about relationships and personal growth, always for free. When asked for the secret of her success, she points to the authenticity of the information she offers.

"Everything posted on The Truly Charming is extremely well-researched and detailed," says Sira. "There's an overload of information on the internet on the same topics that I write about, but most of it is copied and re-copied, over and over again, from totally unreliable resources. The content I offer is original and authentic, and I often interview well established experts to get the best possible advice for my readers."

The Truly Charming offers a range of popular topics about how to improve social skills and relationships, and how to become more confident. Sira's articles have been published in such renowned media outlets as media as Entrepreneur, Thrive Global, Plenty of Fish, MamaMia, Ladders, and The Good Men Project. She adds that in June 2021, after just six months, it was already ranking in the first Google SERP Page for popular keywords.
