Foresight Florida will open offices in the following cities:
• Fort Lauderdale
• Jacksonville
• Miami

At the intersection of health care and technology, a key differentiator of Foresight is their all-inclusive team of psychiatrists, therapists, neuropsychologists, nutritionists, software engineers, data scientists, and researchers, all with the shared mission to revolutionize mental health care using modern technology. This cutting-edge approach enables Foresight's providers to deliver highly personalized, data-backed treatment plans for their members.

"We founded Foresight to increase access to mental health care for everyone, and this remains our organization's primary goal. We're thrilled to open offices throughout Florida to provide comprehensive mental health treatment for those in need," said co-founder Douglas Hapeman. Adds co-founder Matthew Milford, "We're focused on elevating both the patient and the provider experiences at Foresight. Our team is developing technology that helps us reimagine mental health care by leveraging data to empower providers to offer our members a higher level of care." Foresight's founders launched their innovative organization with a vision of integrating mental health care treatment with technology to make people happier and healthier.

Foresight is dedicated to reducing the stigma of mental illness. With their commitment to transform the quality of mental health care, the team at Foresight provides their members with evidence-based treatment, advanced technology, continuous monitoring, and caring providers who offer an inclusive, patient-first approach to care.

The Foresight Florida offices will provide patients throughout the state with the care they need. According to the National Alliance on Mental Illness Greater Orlando, 2,889,000 adults in Florida have a mental health condition. Of those, approximately 660,000 adults and 181,000 children live with serious mental illness such as bipolar disorder, severe depression or schizophrenia. Moreover, in 2021, of the 796,000 adults in Florida who did not receive needed mental health care, 49.7% did not because of cost. Additional studies show:
• Florida ranks 49th among the states for mental-health programs, spending $37.28 per person last year. Mississippi spent four times as much on its mentally ill.
• Floridians are over 5x more likely to be forced out-of-network for mental health care than for primary health care — making it more difficult to find care and less affordable due to higher out-of-pocket costs.
• 70 percent of the people who need mental-health treatment in Florida don't have access.

Reimagining mental health care treatment is Foresight's commitment to all Americans, one person at a time. For more information, contact Foresight today: (800) 515-8313 | info@foresightmentalhealth.com www.foresightmentalhealth.com
