

MSM Unify and LiquiLoans Team Up To Provide Quick and Secure Student Loans

MSM Unify, a one-stop marketplace for international education, partners with LiquiLoans, a peer-to-peer tech-based lending provider.

KELWONA, BC, CANADA, February 3, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MSM Unify, a one-stop marketplace for international education, partners with LiquiLoans, a peer-to-peer tech-based lending provider. This new tie-up allows students using MSM Unify to avail of quick and secure loans for their international education needs.

Founded by a group with vast knowledge in remittance and financial services, LiquiLoans utilizes technology that matches lenders and borrowers. This helps eliminate charges that most banks and lending institutions charge for such a service. This translates to cheaper and more affordable loans. Moreover, it does not require any collateral, which means you can easily get a loan minus the stringent requirement of most lending institutions.

With approximately 30,500,000 free applications for Federal Student Aid completed during the 2020-21 school year, LiquiLoans' technology-based system provides more affordable loan payments, as well as quicker and more secure lend-outs perfect for international students.

With Liquiloans, a student can easily avail of a student loan in three (3) simple steps:

Easy Registration: Enter all pertinent data such as name, address, purpose of loan, and contact information.

Quick Verification: With a tech-based system in place, verification of identity and requirements is possible within hours.

Receive Funds: Once everything is in order, funds will be transferred to their nominated bank account.

To qualify for a student loan, students must:

Be 18 years old and above

Have a valid and verifiable address

Have an existing bank account for fund transfer

Show proof of regular income or capacity to pay

Be an Indian resident

"At Liquiloans we believe in pursuing your dream of higher studies without limits. For this reason, we look at ways to structure study abroad loans to meet your needs and cost of education,” notes Nikhil Lalit, Strategic Alliances Manager at LiquiLoans.

With the latest partnership with MSM Unify, students who partake in the different services of the one-stop marketplace will more easily be able to avail of student loans and realize their dreams much faster, especially with the all-in-one services offered by MSM Unify.

“Students are at the center of the recruitment, and MSM Unify is building an ecosystem where students can practically find almost anything related to their international education journey, including how they will fund their education,” shares Avinav Sharma, Head of Strategy and Business Operations at MSM Unify. “This partnership echoes this thrust—there’s a solution for their education needs.”

Help your students invest in their education with MSM Unify and LiquiLoans.
