

Side Steps Terrorizing Sound Bites

Women Empowerment in this Male-Dominated Society

TUCSON, ARIZONA, UNITED STATES, February 4, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Amy Jean Nickoloff published her collective poems in a book titled Side Steps Terrorizing Sound Bites. This book poetically reveals the terrible consequences of life being played rather than lived. Amy shares personal trials, tribulations, and contemplation in a spirited rhythmic chime. The struggle of women to be recognized in a male dominated society is brashly portrayed in activist poetry style. This collection flares up at the historical missteps we habitually ignore.

"The result is a poetic social inspection at its best: a journey of compelling, engaging historical examination that links personal experience and evolution to activism in a compelling, unique, artistic manner where everything in life is potentially revolutionary." — D. Donovan, Senior Reviewer, Midwest Review.

"Side Steps Terrorizing Sound Bites by Amy Jean is a collection of 33 poems and accompanying art that will take your breath away. The author shares rhythmic and almost lyrical pieces of poetry that speak about the struggles of women (or anyone who wants to be recognized) in this society. In this collection, the reader will face some bitter truths and some hard realities.
