The Shields are also the proud owners of Four Paws Rescue: a 501© (3) nonprofit in the state of California that runs a program called “Train One Save One” which donates a training package to shelter dogs upon adoption, to reduce owner surrenders. They also work with new clients to consistently donate dog food to local rescues.

“

We are thrilled to now offer our range of dog training services in the Temecula Valley. It's an honor to also give back to the local community with our Four Paws Rescue initiative.”
