

Worldwide Future Soldier Programmes presented at the Future Soldier Technology Conference 2022

Smi Reports: The conference, taking place in London next month, features nine different nations presenting updates on their Future Soldier Programmes.

LONDON, LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, February 4, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- There is only a month to go until the 8th Annual Future Soldier Technology Conference and Exhibition returns to London on the 8th and 10th March 2022 alongside a Dismounted Soldier Situational Awareness Focus Day on the 7th March 2022.

As the world's leading meeting dedicated to enhancing dismounted soldier technology, Future Soldier Technology 2022 will offer an attractive networking space to foster new working relationships and discuss current requirements and experiences in equipment modernisation.

This event usually sells out early – for those interested in attending the conference, it is advised to register soon to avoid disappointment. Register at <http://www.futuresoldiertechology.com/pr2>.

Delegates will have the opportunity to hear key updates on Future Soldier Programmes from these nations: the UK, France, Portugal, Canada, Australia, Netherlands, Sweden, Germany, the USA, and more.

Featured presentations include:
