history. It has purchased companies from industries including manufacturing, hospitality, retail, healthcare, and financial services. The company is currently purchasing companies at an unprecedented degree of growth. In fact, it is on pace to exceed the companies 12 month forecasts.

"We're excited to be able to help these businesses find their wings again," Jpc capital's founder said at a small press meeting today. He explained that while they were excited to help these businesses grow and thrive, they would not be doing so without getting a return on their investment. He promised they would not be cutting costs by lowering workers' wages or benefits or laying off workers, but he did say that they would explore any other options necessary before considering purchasing new equipment or hiring new workers."

It's going to be exciting to see the trajectory of the company in the coming years and we will be following along in great anticipation.
