

Smart Diapers Market Leading Global Companies and Regional Average Pricing Analysis by 2030

The increase in disposable income, combined with the penetration of the internet is the major factor driving the growth of the smart diapers market

PORTLAND, OR, UNITED STATES,
February 8, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ --

The increasing birth rate across many developed and developing countries in the world, and increasing adoption of the internet amongst individuals are the factors driving the growth of the smart diapers market. In addition, increasing trends of IoT devices and the growing need for smart connected devices amongst people are also expected to drive the market growth. However, lack of product awareness amongst the people and the high price of smart connected diapers in comparison with traditional diapers are the factors hampering the growth of the market. Furthermore, the adoption of smart diapers by people to monitor urinary incontinence and moisture status of the diapers to prevent skin-related diseases provides lucrative opportunities to the growth of the smart diapers market.

Major players include: Verily Life Sciences, Abena Group, Digisense, ElderSens, Hunan Cosom Care Products Co., Kimberly Clark Corp., Opro9, Procter & Gamble Co., Pixie Scientific, LLC, Sensasure Company
