Mobile phone accessories are those add-ons that improve the performance of your phone. They're normally created by the same firm that makes the phone, but they can look rather different. Most mobile phone manufacturers provide a large selection of mobile phone accessories to choose from. Some accessories are also included as a free gift with your phone. Smartphones are continually being improved to give users the greatest possible experience.

The rise in adoption of smartphones due to the increasing penetration of the internet around the globe is propelling the growth of the mobile phone accessories market. International Telecommunication Union, estimates that at the end of 2019, a bit more than 51 percent of the global population, or 4 billion people, are using the Internet. The growing popularity of wireless accessories such as earphones and Bluetooth for listening to music coupled with the increasing disposable income of the consumers is again augmenting the growth of the market. Moreover, expanding social networking sites across urban areas is further projected to foster the growth of the mobile phone accessories market. Furthermore, increasing advancement in mobile accessories is again anticipated to accelerate the growth of the market.
