The event begins at 11am and will last until 5pm that Saturday. In addition to the Funko Pop vendors already located in the store there will be several guest vendors setting up tables for an extended selection of Funko Pops, toys, action figures and other collectibles. This is a one day event and will only be taking place at our Fort Worth store at 6385 Camp Bowie Blvd. Fort Worth, TX 76116. This event is unlimited, no purchase required, all are invited to join in the fun. There will also be a Hot Wheels drag race taking place in store, so if you think you have the wheels to walk away with first place...

When asked about the popularity of Funko Pops, “So many people want to rent space for Pops and we have to turn them away,” says Lisa the President of Fanboys Marketplace, “You have to find a balance else we’d only sell Pops...” Events like this allow a release for those who deal in Funko Pops and gives them an opportunity for business. Which is what collecting often is: a business. There’s an art to being on the pulse of what people are wanting and waiting for, knowing what will be hot and what won't. It can be quite the speculator market.
