Sue Chipperton has trained animals for Hollywood for 27 years, with the majority of that time at one of the leading animal companies (Studio Animal Services) as a senior trainer and animal coordinator.

“

It is always wonderful to work with Sue Chipperton and her amazingly talented animals. We are honored to be chosen to assist Sue with her precious, adorable and talented animal cargo!”

Tanja Janfruechte, Pacific Air Cargo CEO.

In 2014 she launched her Hawaii-based company, Check The Gate, supplying animals for film and television for Hawaii and the world. Sue has worked on numerous episodes for two-time Emmy Award winner Magnum P.I. and Hawaii 5-0, and numerous film projects. It is a feather in her cap to have been chosen once again by Budweiser to train and manage Eddie for this soon to be famous commercial.

In the past, she has provided the training of puppies in previous Budweiser Super Bowl commercials, as well as the Taco Bell Dog, and the Aflac Duck. Her work has also been global — as a studio trainer in Japan, Hong Kong, South Korea, Chile, Hungary, Mexico, and Canada.

"It is always wonderful to work with Sue Chipperton and her amazingly talented animals," stated Tanja Janfruechte, Pacific Air Cargo CEO. "We are honored to be chosen to assist Sue with her precious, adorable and talented animal cargo!"
