

Act Now Education becomes the newest NVBDC Military & Veteran Organization Task Force Member

Act Now Education provides free educational resources and opportunities for Active Duty, Veterans, Military Spouses, and Children.

DETROIT, MI, UNITED STATES, February 11, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- National Veterans Business Development Council (NVBDC) welcomes Act Now Education to its Military and Veterans Organization Task Force (MVO Task Force). Our MVO Task Force focuses on pursuing and achieving tactical and strategic objectives to help Service-Disabled and Veteran-Owned Businesses (SD/VOBs). Act Now Education's membership is an excellent addition to the MVO Task Force by providing free comprehensive educational resources and opportunities for Active Duty, Veterans, Military Spouses, and Children.

Act Now Education's approach is through reliable resources that foster a community sharing information. From success story interviews to training courses and transitioning checklists, the organization offers a knowledge baseline to military service members and their families at any stage. Their support and added value to the community is a constant initiative and continually updated on their website.

"Together we can achieve more for America's Heroes" is an endorsement that upholds its initiatives to support and advocate for military service members, veterans, and their families. The MVO Task Force partners with military and veteran organizations to promote, share, and highlight its members. As an essential part of NVBDC, the MVO Task Force enables our organization to collaborate resources with task force partners to increase awareness and establish a respected position in the industry supporting Veteran Business success.

"The military community is eager to learn more and hone their skills, but it can be challenging with their working conditions and deployments to attend courses. NVBDC is looking forward to promoting Act Now Education to our veteran community and MVO Task Force Members to provide access to their opportunities through remote learning," said U.S. Army Lt. Col. (retired) Kathy Poynton, Military & Veteran Organization Task Force Director, NVBDC.

National Veteran Business Development Council (NVBDC) is the leading third-party veteran business certification organization. A primary goal for NVBDC is to bring Service-Disabled and Veteran-Owned Businesses (SD/VOBs) together to establish business relationships.
