The Foundation's Truth About Drugs program is the largest and most comprehensive nongovernmental drug education and prevention initiative of its kind. With its materials translated in over 20 languages and through a worldwide network of volunteers, 140 million drug prevention booklets have been distributed in over 190 countries.

"I have a built-in excuse this week to be busy, but I am making the time to do things that are important to me," Faulk stated. The Hall of Famer will deliver a speech to the kids, invite them to participate in a Q&A, and host giveaways of Super Bowl merchandise.
