-- The University of Visayas was founded by the late Don Vicente A.
Gullas in 1919 in Cebu City its original site. Undaunted by adversities, Don Vicente opened classes in Argao, Cebu in 1946. A year later, the Institute moved back to its present site along Colon corner D. Jakoslem Streets, Cebu City.

The University Of Visayas had pioneered in education innovations to provide equal education opportunities especially to poor those who are deserving students. It was the first school to conduct night school classes for working students in Cebu City in the 1940s. The "Study Now, Pay Later Plan" had been a practice at the University Of Visayas long before it was adopted by the Department of Education, Culture and Sports (now Department of Education) in the 1980s.

In 1948, the University Of Visayas was awarded university status, the first to become a university in Cebu, and was renamed the University of the Visayas (UV).

Since then, the expansion in its basic education, undergraduate and graduate offerings and in its physical facilities has been phenomenal. Don Vicente Gullas also brought education closer to the people as the school opened a total of eight satellite campuses across Cebu Province making it the private University in Cebu with the most number of external campuses.

From an initial enrolment of 37 students when it was founded, the University has evolved into an institution with an estimated enrolment of more than 20,000 students distributed throughout its campuses. Over the years, the University has also produced board exam topnotches and distinguished alumni who have been successful in their chosen fields.
