Intelligence Center (JAIC), Test & Evaluation (T&E) Blanket Purchase Agreement (BPA). The BPA is a five-year contract that supports the JAIC’s mission to deliver resilient, accountable, and trustworthy Artificial Intelligence in support of U.S. Government agencies.

To meet the many use cases and broad requirements under the BPA, Forward Edge-AI established a consortium comprised of the world’s leading technology companies, startups, and academic research institutions to unlock the power of AI and develop solutions to the government’s complex problems. Members of the consortium include Automation Anywhere, AI Squared, Bowie State University, Colibra Federal, Federal Management Systems, General Infomatics, Howard University, KPMG, Meharry Medical College, Microsoft, Moment AI, Morgan State University, North Carolina A&T, REDHOUSE, UT San Antonio, and TDX International.

“We are profoundly grateful for the opportunity to serve or nation. Our team was assembled to enable the DOD and the entire Federal government to develop and adopt AI capabilities at speed and scale,” said Eric Adolphe, CEO and co-founder of Forward Edge-AI, Inc.
