

Mini-album of Honor of Kings Arrives in the Year of the Tiger

The digital release of Honor of Kings Chinese New Year 2022, comprising a total of six tracks, is scheduled on January 31 in celebration of the festive season

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, USA, February 16, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Celebrate the festive season with your favorite game music! With the arrival of the Year of the Tiger, a commemorative mini-album of one of the most sought-after games, Honor of Kings Chinese New Year 2022, is released digitally worldwide on January 31 by music powerhouse Unisonar and TiMi Studio Group, a subsidiary of Tencent Games.

Honor of Kings, a mobile game developed by TiMi Studio Group, has been a resounding success since its debut in the Chinese market in 2015, boasting over 100 million daily active players now and becoming one of the highest grossing mobile games of all time.

The mini-album, produced by TiMi Audio, takes listeners on a music journey to the battlefields in Honor of Kings through six tracks crafted by renowned composers, including Lee Na Yeon, Daniel James, Ting Si Hao, Obadiah Brown-Beach and HeartStrings. Once nominated for "Audio Achievement" at the British Academy of Film and Television Arts, James is a familiar name for fans with his contributions to the previous soundtrack albums of the game. So is Brown-Beach, who amassed a gold medal in the 2019 Global Music Awards for his previous works in the soundscape of Honor of Kings.
