

SHOES THAT FIT AND CLARK COUNTY JOIN FORCES TO PROVIDE NEW ATHLETIC SHOES TO LOCAL KIDS

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, February 16, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Nonprofit Shoes That Fit and Clark County

Commissioner Tick Segerblom are joining forces to provide a day of entertainment and a pair of brand new athletic shoes to 200 local kids. The shoes are made possible by a generous donation from Clark County and will be distributed at the Parkdale Community Center on Saturday, February 19th. The day will also include fun activities for the kids such as a large inflatable obstacle course, a human-hungry hippo game, and hamster balls. While in the parking lot, kids and families will find street hockey, soccer, basketball, and football stations, and games.

"New shoes can be very expensive for families struggling to make ends meet, it is great to see these organizations come together to give so many local kids the shoes they need and take some financial stress off of hard-working families." TICK SEGERBLOM – Clark County Commissioner

"One in five children in the United States live in poverty, and shoes are one of the most expensive items for low-income families to provide. When families must choose between putting food on the table or buying new shoes for school, you can imagine that food wins every time. The simple gift of a pair of shoes can increase a child's confidence, attendance, and performance at school, and we are so thankful that Clark County is taking the time to make such a positive impact on these kids." AMY FASS – Executive Director & CEO, Shoes That Fit
