“We are delighted to welcome these three attorneys to our team,” said Ronnie Bitman, Managing Partner. “Their experience and wide-ranging knowledge will enhance our trial team and will ensure continued practical, streamlined, and unparalleled services we provide for our clients.”

Bitman O'Brien & Morat, PLLC is a cost-effective legal services and counseling provider for clients throughout Florida with offices in Orlando, Tampa, Ft. Lauderdale, and Miami.

The practices new attorneys are:

Wendy Griffith joins as senior counsel in the foreclosure department, specializing in default servicing litigation. For nine years, she has concentrated on successfully representing mortgage servicers statewide. She has become a mainstay in the mortgage litigation scene where she handles complex contested matters. She also obtained a nursing degree and worked her way through law school as a pediatric nurse. Before law school, she was an engineer for Siemens Westinghouse Power Corporation where she worked on new power plant construction nationwide. The Central Florida native received her B.S. degree in chemical engineering from the University of South Florida in 2001, followed by her J.D. from Barry University Dwayne O. Andreas School of Law in 2009.

Judah Solomon has 13 years' civil and criminal trial experience in nearly every Florida county. He has served as lead counsel in thousands of bench trials covering numerous issues statewide and served as an Assistant State Attorney for four years. He brings to the firm extensive experience as a trial lawyer, representing banks, lenders, and servicers in high-value asset recovery and general litigation. He is joining the firm as Senior Counsel and is charged with a variety of matters such as contested foreclosures, construction law, and commercial litigation. The Miami native earned his B.A. in political science and a minor in classical studies from the University of Florida in 2004 and his J.D. from Florida International University College of Law in 2008.

Madison Reeber joins as an associate with experience in personal injury defense having represented insurance companies statewide. Previously, she clerked for the Honorable Kevin B. Weiss at the Ninth Judicial Circuit, Civil Division, and served as a legal intern for the City of Orlando Attorney's Office. While in law school, Madison was president and vice president of the Jewish Law Student Association, and she served as an editor for the Florida Journal of International Law. The Central Florida native received her B.A. in history from Tulane University in 2017. She later earned her J.D. from the University of Florida Levin College of Law, graduating with honors in 2020.
