February 16, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/

-- Fast growing Volli pickleball sports bar and Catapult adventure park concepts announced the opening of their first joint store megaplex. The 62,000 square foot building at 6635 Northeast Hwy 820 in North Richland Hills, TX will house the largest indoor pickleball + sports bar + adventure park in the country. This innovative indoor facility will open its doors to the community in fall-2022. There is plenty of space, both inside and outside, for corporate team outings, church groups, and sports teams of any size.

We are very excited to bring the North Richland Hills community a family-friendly venue with pickleball, great food and games and an adventure park for the entire family.”

“We are very excited to bring the North Richland Hills community a family-friendly venue with pickleball, great food and games and an adventure park for the entire family. There isn’t anything like this in Texas or anywhere else in the USA. We are expanding the concept across the USA.” – Allan Jones – President of Volli Entertainment and Catapult Adventure Park Groups.

Volli and Catapult are expected to be THE place for both competitive and non-competitive pickleball, golf simulators, shuffleboard, darts, an arcade, cornhole and a cutting edge adventure park. Along with a delicious fresh food menu, Volli will serve high-end cocktails, a plethora of beers on tap, and an excellent selection of wine.

Volli Entertainment and Catapult Adventure Park groups are based in Charleston, SC. Volli and Catapult have multiple locations in Florida, Puerto Rico, Washington state and now Texas. The brands are owned by Launchpad Global, LLC, also based in Charleston, SC.
