

ColdTransfer Media Process Sale Offering

Sale offering of breakthrough technology for novel media materials which also cover transfers to rough and irregular surfaces of all kinds.

RSL Holdings, Inc.

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, UNITED STATES, February 22, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- RSL Holdings Inc., an intellectual property consultant and broker, has posted a sale offering for novel breakthrough technology that advances media materials to also cover transfers to rough and irregular surfaces of all kinds. The offering includes extensive knowhow, one Polish patent and one pending U.S. trademark for ColdTransfer.

Standard media material typically serves in the large-format printing and drawing media industry, where there have been various commercial applications for decoration of smooth surfaces, such as walls. This breakthrough ColdTransfer media material technology enables the ability to transfer printed graphic and/or text and motif themes onto any type of surface, regardless of texture.

The inventors are also manufacturers, utilizing their own innovative ColdTransfer technology to produce and sell media material products primarily within Europe. Their solution enables graphics transfer to various surfaces including differently shaped objects made of diverse materials such as concrete, metal, wood, bricks, glass, etc. Their products have been sold to the building industry, architects, interior designers, crafters, and the automotive and advertising sectors, but it has potential applications far beyond.

The inventors are natives of the Ukraine and are now residents of Poland. They have been active as inventors and entrepreneurs, having created technologies, businesses, and knowhow relevant to the art, architectural and construction worlds.
