

No more excuses, airtight packaging is now sustainable

CRATIV Packaging announces the launch of CRATIV Vault, an airtight and sustainable packaging solution for flower and edible products.

DENVER, CO, UNITED STATES, July 1, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CRATIV EARTH
OUR PLANET, OUR HOME, OUR RESPONSIBILITY

No more excuses! Airtight packaging is now sustainable and cost effective. CRATIV Packaging announces the launch of the CRATIV Vault.

CRATIV Solutions, Inc, a trusted leader in sustainable, child-resistant packaging is proud to announce the launch of CRATIV Vault, an airtight and environmentally responsible packaging solution for cannabis products.

With local manufacturing and enhanced production efficiencies, now is the time to enable brands with reliable, airtight and sustainable solutions.”

CRATIV Packaging

properly.

CRATIV Vault products are designed to address both the environmental impact and the logistical challenges of traditional glass and plastic packaging. Manufactured exclusively in North America, CRATIV Packaging only manufactures with durable, lightweight, and proprietary blends of sustainable materials, while honoring a commitment to reduce and displace reliance on traditional plastic materials.

With the launch of Vault, CRATIV Packaging offers a unique, airtight seal without the need for rubber or silicone gaskets in a single layer of packaging.

CRATIV Vault ensures products stay as fresh as the day they were packed.

The CRATIV Advantage:

- Sustainable: CRATIV Vault products are manufactured exclusively with USDA Certified plant-based or accelerated degradation materials
- Local: All CRATIV products are proudly manufactured in North America
- Efficient: Shipped open and nested, Vault products enhance productivity and are designed for automation
- Cost Effective: With local manufacturing, shipping, and scalable efficiencies, CRATIV products are priced to eliminate the need for traditional plastic and glass offerings
