

Ertha Pascal Trouillot, former President of Haiti, joins Bishop Joseph Tolton in calling for BLACK INTERNATIONALISM DAY

The global Pan African convening aims to establish the last Friday in February as BLACK INTERNATIONALISM DAY in honor of W.E.B DuBois.

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, February 17, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Black Internationalism Day will be important for the future of people of African descent and my beloved Haiti ”

*President Ertha Pascal
Trouillot*

President Ertha Pascal Trouillot of Haiti joins forces with Bishop Joseph W. Tolton, President of Interconnected Justice, in calling for the establishment of BLACK INTERNATIONALISM DAY. President Pascal will break her silence and address the issue of gang violence in Haiti. She will state clearly why She believes that people of African descent globally must unite in solidarity with each other on many issues including standing united in support of Haiti.

“I think there should be a taskforce between Africa and the diaspora to help lift our people globally” - Ertha Pascal Trouillot

WHAT: BLACK INTERNATIONALISM DAY is a global convening connecting academics, faith leaders, civil society advocates, media professionals, and grassroots activists from Africa and across her Diaspora.

WHY: The purpose of the convening is to mobilize a global campaign advocating for the establishment of BLACK INTERNATIONALISM DAY as a day of solidarity and joint action among people of African descent globally.

The event will honor the life of the W.E.B. DuBois born on February 23rd. We will highlight the urgent need for a 21st century, populist, youth-powered, globally connected, social change movement designed, produced, and ultimately funded by people of African descent.
