

Inaugural Rhodes Food Festival Coming to Greece in May 2022

LegendsAbroad.com and Rhodes Tourism host inaugural feast serving over two weeks of exclusive culinary-themed tours and epic gala celebrations

UNITED STATES, February 17, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Gourmands will taste the real Greece on the third-largest island of Rhodes. This island has been famous since Ancient Greece for the palate-pleasing and famously exclusive gastronomy and wine. Rhodian cuisine ranges from customary cafes to time-tested tavernas and refined fine dining.

Epicureans seeking to immerse with Greece's finest gastronomic offerings while wishing to combine a culture trip and beach vacation need to take notice of the Rhodes Food Festival in May of 2022.

George Hatzimarkos, the Governor of South Aegean Region says: "Situated at the crossroads of three continents and combining the sophisticated worldliness of Europe with the mystery of the East, Rhodes is one of the most developed islands in the Mediterranean, boasting enough reasons and significant advantages as an unrivaled destination. Foodies from all over the world choose Rhodes to taste the blend of civilizations, the traces of history, the gems of nature, and the brilliant combination of tradition along with its cosmopolitan atmosphere. Cosmopolitan and modern, traditional and ancient, spectacular yet unspoiled, Rhodes constitutes a unique island landscape in the Aegean; A sea full of adventures, experiences, and myths reflecting on every single dish served!"

On the typical table set on Rhodes, food is accompanied by extremely delicious bread, which is traditionally home-made (countryside-style with fermented rye). Buns, cheese pies, oil buns and small pies with honey, cinnamon and clove are also baked in these ovens. The holy liquid of god

Dionysos, wine, has been a main feature on the typical table of Rhodes ever since the ancient times and remains one to this day. The wines produced on the island are considered to be among the best in the world.

Sweets of Rhodes are the traditional Greek spoon sweets. These are seasonal fruits (quince, plume, orange, chestnut, apricot, cherry etc.), which must be of excellent quality, preserved in sugar. Well-known sweets are "galaktoboureko", "baklava", "kadaifi", "melomakarona", "simigdalenios chalvas", "ravani" and "samali". Any true gourmand must try the ancient and modern delicacies of "Pouges", "Tsirigia", "Kapamas", Tzatziki, Greek traditional salad, "Gemista", "Giaprakia", "Makarounes", "Mousaka" and "Pasticcio".

Rhodes, Greece is one of the world's top destinations for amazing mediterranean cuisine.
