We can disagree, but we can all agree on the fact that we need to love and respect each other, even when we are at different places in our lives politically, socially, even religiously”

Chad Mattson

“These last couple years, we, as believers, have had to have some really strong conversations because in our culture, we find it hard to disagree on certain things, and still love and be kind to each other,” says Unspoken lead vocalist Chad Mattson, revealing the impetus behind the new song. “There is this polarization of beliefs, yet Jesus reveals to us in John chapter 13 that it’s love that identifies us with being his kids.

"We can disagree, but we can all agree on the fact that we need to love and respect each other, even when we are at different places in our lives politically, socially, even religiously," continues Mattson. "'Love Is Everything We Need' is a song of encouragement for believers, to find ways to love each other even when we don't see eye to eye on everything. Our love is one of the biggest testimonies we have."

Love, love, love, love Love is everything we need

Love, love, love, love Love is what we're called to be

We may not see eye to eye

But tell me can't we all agree

Love, love, love, love Love is everything

Love is everything we need

(Lyrics from "Love Is Everything We Need" chorus)

"Love Is Everything We Need" follows 2019's acclaimed, bestselling album Reason, which sparked several radio hits, including the multiformat No. 1 title track and Top 20 singles "You've Always Been" and "Just Give Me Jesus."

About Unspoken:

Receiving over 236 million on-demand streams, 125 million music video views, 457,000 album sales and 870,000 track sales, Unspoken's music is as distinct as its roots. Its soulful, pop-flavored songs are led by the Adam Levine-esque vocals of Chad Mattson. With no fear of mixing it up, whether backed by a horn section, gospel choir or hip-hop rhythms, the band released its self-titled album in 2014. The album featured "Start A Fire," the band's first radio single and No. 1 AC hit that launched them into headliner positions on tour the following year. The band's sophomore album, Follow Through (2016), debuted at No. 7 on the Billboard Top Christian Album Chart while its current album, Reason (2019), sparked the band's biggest, multiformat No. 1 hit so far, "Reason." Unspoken's Top 10 AC hits include: "Who You Are," "Lift My Life Up," "Good Fight" and "You've Always Been." Having toured with TobyMac, Casting Crowns, Mercy Me, Big Daddy Weave and more, Unspoken band members are living out their mission to be unspoken testimonies to God's love and power, and to speak what oftentimes goes unspoken.
