MRO Middle East (#MROME) exhibition will be held in Dubai, UAE next week, February 22-23. The trade show, co-located with Aircraft Interiors Middle East (AIME), is the Gulf region's leading conference and exhibition for commercial aviation maintenance.

Gathering over 3,000 registered attendees from the entire airline supply chain, the event offers networking among industry leaders representing airlines, regulators, suppliers, and service providers.

The exhibition, which features more than 150 solution providers, is taking place at the Dubai World Trade Center (Sheikh Saeed Halls 2 & 3). Click here to see who is exhibiting.

This year features several new opportunities for networking and reaching buyers including a Buyer Programme, aimed at identifying key purchasers for airlines and lessors and arranging 20-minute meetings; Go Live! Theater a with discussions led by industry experts and influential figures from the region; and the Airline Club Lounge is a dedicated lounge on the show floor for the Airline Buyers to relax, catch up on emails and enjoy the complimentary refreshments. New for this year, the Grip platform is being used for the official networking platform, allowing attendees to connect with attendees and pre-arrange meetings ahead of the show. The app is available to download on the app store or google play by searching AIME MRO Middle East.

MRO Middle East Platinum Sponsors are HEICO and StandardAero. Gold sponsors are Eight Wings, Embraer, Lufthansa Technik, and VD Gulf.

"We are so excited to bring the industry together again for the region's premier MRO Aviation event. The exhibition is sold out and we are expecting record crowds who are ready to network, shop solution providers, and make purchasing decisions," said Lydia Janow, Sr. Vice President of events for Aviation Week Network. "We added new programs for MRO Middle East giving our attendees even more opportunities to network with those who are fostering growth in the region, developing cutting-edge technology, and pushing the industry forward."
