

NAMMBA Announces Partnership with PCV Murcor

PCV Murcor increases commitment to better serve today's rapidly changing housing market.

ORLANDO, FL, UNITED STATES,
February 22, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/

-- Today, PCV Murcor begins a partnership with the National Association of Minority Mortgage Bankers of America (NAMMBA). PCV Murcor, a leading national real estate valuations management company, recently celebrated 40 years of providing exemplary service to mortgage lending, financial institutions, estate and litigation, real estate investors, and mortgage servicers.

This partnership with PCV Murcor brings NAMMBA closer to its mission of increasing the engagement of women and minorities in the mortgage industry. The mortgage industry is historically homogeneous and NAMMBA hopes that this partnership will be a part of the path to changing that.

As the makeup of the American homebuyer continues to evolve, it is important as an industry that we reflect different points of view and cultures to have a perspective that serves everyone.”

Keith D. Murray, MAI, PCV Murcor Founder, President, and CEO

“We are so excited that PCV Murcor decided to come on as a partner to create a more diverse mortgage industry,” said NAMMBA Founder/CEO Tony Thompson, CMB.

“Cooperation and collaboration are key to bringing more young people, women, and minorities into this industry and which leads to fresher ideas and ways of doing business.”

As perhaps the only nationwide black-owned appraisal management company (AMC), diversity and inclusion have been keys to PCV Murcor’s operating strategy since they grew from a Pacific coast-based company to one that is nationwide over the past 40 years.

“We (PCV Murcor) echo NAMMBA's sentiment and commitment to diversity within the mortgage industry,” said PCV Murcor Founder, President, and CEO Keith D. Murray, MAI. “As the makeup of the American homebuyer continues to evolve, it is important as an industry that we reflect different points of view and cultures to have a perspective that serves everyone.”
