NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, February 20, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Virtual Parliamentarians (VPOO.ToastmastersClubs.Org) invites leaders, ranging from college students to professionals serving various boards and committees, to its open house.

After hearing from LaMon, members and guests can enjoy a regular meeting, including prepared speeches, Table Topics™ (impromptu speeches), and evaluations.

Robert's Rules Of Order can ensure diverse views are heard and the majority rules, one decision at a time, for organizations to benefit from inclusiveness, membership retention and ethical leadership.”

- Club Sponsor and President of Virtual Parliamentarians Jenny Liu, DTM, observed, “Leaders who

- Professional Registered Parliamentarian (PRP) Ted Allman, DTM, says, "Table Topics™ are one of the best aspects of the meeting because it helps you think quickly and speak clearly on your feet for one to two minutes. As a Topicsmaster, I will randomly select members and then guests to practice chairing a mock meeting for an imaginary society, debating humorous motions, and voting democratically."

Other speakers will include:

- Odette J Wilkens, DTM, President & General Counsel of Wired Broadband, Inc. advocating fiber optics to the premises (FTTP), over wireless, as faster, more cybersecure and safer for health, and Executive Director of the Equal Justice Alliance for protecting Americans' civil liberties, will profile an ethical leader for inspiration during Women's History Month.

- Kevin Bob, RP, a real estate investor specializing in marketing and technology, will reveal "The Man Behind It All" for his icebreaker in the Dynamic Leadership path of the Toastmasters online education program, Pathways.

In addition to these members, others will share how the safe, supportive, and positive experience with constructive feedback helps them grow as leaders and communicators. Join us for a special, fun, and interactive event with a chance to win a complimentary ebook on Robert's
