

Safename - Check Business and Product Names for Undesirable Words

Safename (www.safename.cc) is a new service that checks new product or business names for undesirable words/phrases.

MELBOURNE, VIC, AUSTRALIA,
February 22, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/
-- Safename (www.safename.cc) is a new service for checking that a new product or business name does not contain undesirable words or phrases, including swear words, rude words or other words that may be undesirable in a product name.

Safename can perform a number of checks, including exact, similar and phonetic matches. It does these checks against a dictionary of close to 4,000 profanities, rude or otherwise undesirable words in 11 languages.

The home page has a free use search for doing checks only against Safename's English dictionary. The Premium package ($50 for a month) will perform checks against the full, multi-language dictionary.
