

Campaign to give online and offline option in GTU exam

AHMEDABAD, GUJARAT, INDIA, February 21, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The examination was to be held in Gujarat Technological University from 21st January. However, due to various representations and the health of the students, a circular was issued by GTU asking them to postpone the examination till further orders.

GTU has announced to conduct examination from next 15th. Due to which many students like Gujarat University or any other university are demanding to give online and offline option in the exam. President of Gujarat Pharmacists Association (Student Committee) and NSUI student leader Mehul Panchal expressed his support in this regard by letter to GTU vice chancellor Dr. Navin Seth. He demanded for provide online and offline option in the exam or to make special arrangements for the infected students of corona. NSUI and students are touting the trend together by tweeting #GtuonlineExam #gtugive2option #mehulpanchal4students on Twitter. Simultaneously, since students are studying online in the time of Corona, it has been demanded that the examination should be conducted in both the modes.

Subject : To give two options for semester exam in GTU.

Respected sir,

Jay hind,I hope that you will fine in this COVID situation.As you know, as student leader I got many requests from students what they can't reach out at University level.some of them are for himself only but yesterday I got many requests with some initiative and proof.one of them is asking for give two options (offline and online) because their college two students are corona positive,he further said that their are many may filled corona positive.we know that now we can't postponed or take other decision for University exam.but we can give two options in exam offline mode and online mode of exam for stop overcrowding and lack of risk of spreading corona or give special arrangements for corona positive students. and thank you for past postponed semester exam request of student and thinking about their and their family health.

your's faithfully,

Mehul Panchal.
