

Skoda's Maren Graef To Speak At The Women Automotive Network's Spring Meetup

Skoda's Member of the Board, Maren Graef, and Dr Miranda Brawn are just TWO of the fantastic speakers confirmed for next month's Spring Meetup.

LONDON, LONDON, UK, February 21, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Skoda's Member of the Board, Maren Graef, and Dr Miranda Brawn are just TWO of the fantastic speakers confirmed for next month's Spring Meetup (which is being hosted by the Women Automotive Network).

Unlike previous WAN keynote sessions, Maren will be taking to the stage, and hosting an interactive 'Ask a Leader' session, where she'll be answering questions from the audience. Dr Miranda Brawn will be addressing how as an industry, we can 'drive more women to the automotive boardroom.'

A result of a recent poll (which was taken during the Women Automotive Network's Winter Meetup in 2021) indicated that "only 30.1% of women in the industry feel as though their career goals have the correct internal support."

Therefore, at next month's Spring Meetup, there will be a series of specialist, dedicated career and leadership workshops, personal success stories from automotive female leaders, and... speed networking for ALL attendees, - to drive career goals and support in the industry.

Other speakers include Fedra Ribeiro (COO, Mobilize, Renault Group) who will be delivering a talk on 'Growing New Mobility Business from a Historical core.'

The event will close with a Panel Discussion focus on 'Leadership, Career Development, Being a

"We are so excited to hold our annual Spring Meetup event once again," said Stephanie May, the Women Automotive Network's Commercial Director, and the Spring Meetup's organiser.

"Last year, 250+ delegates attended, whereas this year, we're expecting a much bigger turnout, and we can't wait to celebrate International Women's Day once again, to support leadership and diversity in the automotive industry, and to bring professionals closer together," added Stephanie.
