to promote inspired thinking. The new office is also a warm welcoming environment that will foster creative collaboration and innovative design solutions, “we hope our clients will be more comfortable stopping in for a coffee and visiting with the team,” John says.

“We have been in Sarasota the last ten years and have roots here, so we decided to move next door. The space is perfect for our growing office and will allow us to better serve our clients,” stated John. “Our new office gives us a whole new outlook and it will reflect our abilities as architects and designers. We are really proud of it.”

"In the recent past, our Sarasota team has helped clients develop multi-family housing projects, provided places for fellowship and worship, improved major sporting venues and restaurants, helped to establish dental practices, and supported the healing of our pets with noteworthy animal health projects." said firm PRA Managing Partner, Scott Kramer. "We are all looking forward to helping more clients and employing a larger team with this commitment to Sarasota."
